A new year, new website, new emails. Yes, we have launched our website. It has been live since the last auction and has been greeted with good reviews. Have a look for yourself, if you are able (www.avhstampauctions.co.uk). This has also created new emails to make communication much easier. General emails will be info@avhstampauctions.co.uk and if you want to contact me directly then you just replace info to colin ie colin@avhstampauctions.co.uk. The new website will give you more live information. The auction page will be updated with what is going on. As we describe new material it will be posted on the website to give you a sneak preview of what is coming up. You will be able to download the current catalogue as soon as it is available. You can also see info on the AVH team. Let me know what you think of the site and/or a testimonial.

For those who have noticed we have changed from 'auction' to 'auctions' (within website and email addresses). We are now onto auction 17 which offers over 3,000 lots covering a great variety of material. A wide range of KGV throughout, with many fitting in the Crown album. It starts with album pages and mixed collections. A selection of 1935 omnibus lots and under the thematic section, you will find a new range of RAF signed covers. The new postal history section has some interesting items. It has war time correspondence, various cachets and postmarks from Antigua, Bermuda, Germany and many more. Within the one country section you will find useful Australia collections, singles and states (inc South Australia). China from early dragons to modern sets and m/s's. A range of French Colonies, Germany from states, Occupations, West, East, etc. Hong Kong and Malaya has earlies as well as modern sets and singles. India has a wide range of lots including 1948 Ghandi set and many states (Convention and Feudatory). USA holds a selection of earlies and modern sheetlets.

The GB section has the usual few collections, Essays, Proofs and postal history at the beginning, leading into a range of 1840 1d blacks, line engraved and surface printed. KEDVII and KGV includes £1 values ie Seahorses and PUC's. QEII has varieties and some better FDC's (commems and Defins). Continuing the interest in booklets we have a selection pre-decimal to decimal. The sale finishes with a small section of Officials and Channel Is lots.

I am sure you will have some fun going through the catalogue and I hope you find something that interests you and even gets you placing a bid. With the post being a bit erratic I would suggest getting your bids in early or by email. With the current lockdown and working from home, despatching will be from home. This will create a slight time delay in the despatching (order will be as before, small lots leading onto larger purchases). Please bear with us on this and we will get lots out as soon as we can. – Happy bidding Colin.
