Summer is officially over; we look forward to winter. A good time to stock up on material to sort out over the up coming dark nights. Please be aware of forgeries of barcoded 1st class stamps. We have been advised the sorting office looks for the brail bump and relief on the barcode. If all smooth the post office can reject them.

This catalogue has lots of new material and some that has been reoffered but reduced. All the usual sections run through out the catalogue. Useful Early Indian States and French Colonies. We have continued with a large selection of postal history. This previously proved to be of interest to a lot of people. With many collections, set and singles, A-Z you should find plenty to look through.

With rising costs for Paper, Print, Stationery and Postage. We are forced to introduce a 5% buyers' premium to our postal auctions. This will start in 2024.

Good Hunting from Colin and Pauline.

Office opening hours Monday - Friday 9.00am - 5.00pm
